

Welcome to BOMA Metro Detroit, the premier association of commercial real estate professionals. BOMA Metro Detroit is comprised of nearly 400 members and is a part of a dynamic federation of 16,000+ individuals that collectively represent over 9 billion square feet of commercial properties and facilities throughout the United States. Your membership opens doors both in the Metro Detroit organization as well as the extended membership in BOMA International.

BOMA's programs are designed to put money back into your company's pocket, help advance your career, and save you time and allow you to work smarter. We encourage you to take full advantage of all that your membership has to offer — peer networking, continuing education, professional designation programs, research, publications, advocacy, and up-to-the-minute information on the commercial real estate industry. On our website www.bomadet.org you will find information on what's happening at BOMA Metro Detroit as well as a number of opportunities you'll want to take advantage of, please be sure to visit the New Member Section.

Additionally, BOMA International offers programs and services that benefit you in the following areas:

24-hour access to industry information —The home page, www.boma.org is your primary search engine for timely information on our industry, provides members with immediate access to the industry's latest issues and BOMA's current offerings in education, products and services. As a member and by logging on to the website you gain access to premium content available to members only.

Professional Education — Committed to providing the best professional education on cutting-edge topics affecting day-to-day operations, BOMA University members receive timely, practical training at affordable costs, while gaining the skills needed to enhance and advance your career. BOMA International can create customized programs to meet your training and education needs. In addition, existing topics and courses can be "mixed and matched" to form a customized program for your group.

Research and Publications — Comprehensive industry-wide research reports, data and publications provide you with vital information to manage your operation efficiently. The BOMA Magazine, which you receive free as a part of your membership, is the number one source for up-to-the-minute news and information on legislative, regulatory and codes activities, statistical trends and forecasts, and emerging technologies impacting commercial real estate. BOMA e-news delivers BOMA and industry news in concise articles to your e-mail inbox once a month.

Advocacy — BOMA is the lead voice for commercial real estate before Congress, regulatory bodies, state, and local governments. BOMA members are kept up-to-date on the latest information through BOMA's biweekly newsletter, Currents. BOMA has also expanded its interactive legislative action center, a member service that allows our member's voices to be heard in State Capitals across the country.

Networking — Our premier network of commercial real estate professionals is comprised of the leading building owners, managers, developers, corporate facility managers, leasing professionals, asset managers, medical facility managers and the providers of the goods and services needed to operate commercial properties. Networking opportunities abound at the annual June North American Real Estate Congress and The Office Building Show. This event features internationally known speakers, educational seminars, and a variety of business, social and networking events.

It is a pleasure to welcome you to BOMA Metro Detroit. We look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Janet Langlois', with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

Janet Langlois
Executive Director
BOMA Metro Detroit